

HEY MOMS ! HEY DADS !

CHECK THIS OUT !

For a lot of young families “going to Church on Sunday” tends to fall off the table, pre-empted by pressing priorities, or simply set aside with no interest in following so-called “traditional Christian worship”. Despite those pressures or that outlook family togetherness is something we can all value. And that’s why St. Martin’s Anglican Church is launching its

MESSY CHURCH INITIATIVE

This is a once-a-month “happening” on Tuesday from 5:00 to 7:00 pm for toddlers to early teens along with their Mom, their Dad – who knows maybe even an Aunt, an Uncle, Guardian or Grandparent. It’s a time to hang out together doing crafts, hearing stories, singing songs, exploring the Church and – best of all - enjoying a meal together that neither Mom nor Dad had to prepare after a hectic, messy day.

There are no messy fees to pay for participating in Messy Church. Please see reverse side for the Messy Church Schedule of dates and how to register.
